Pioneer Physician Called

Dr. David C. Stinson, for thirty-two years a resident physician of this place, died last Thursday night at his home in Leeds, Ia., where he located four years ago, after giving up the practice of medicine on account of failing health. His death resulted from a cancer of the bowels, which he had suffered for about two years. He had been confined to his bed since Christmas.

Dr. Stinson was born at Dalton, Ohio, July 22, 1850. He entered the medical profession, graduating from the medical college at Keokuk, Ia., June 16, 1874. He located in Dakota City, Neb., June 4, 1880, opened up a drug store, and took up the work of his chosen profession. In those days physicians many times were compelled to make trips on horseback, at other times in a buggy if the roads permitted. He served as county judge of Dakota county for one term in 1908 and 1909, with dignity and honor.

Dr. Stinson was married October 14, 1875, to Miss Rosa A. Moon, at Garnett, Kans. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and Modern Brotherhood of America in this place, and the Odd Fellows lodge at Leeds. Surviving him, besides his widow, are three daughters, Mrs.
George L. Lillie, of Maxbass, N. D., and Misses Perle and Bess Stinson, of Leeds. A sister, Mrs. Anna Mc-Afee, and a brother, R. J. Stinson, of Dalton, Ohio, also survive him.

Funeral services were held from the residence, 4500 Grant avenue, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 and at 2 o'clock at the Olivet Presbyterian church, Rev. Fenton C. Jones officiating. The I. O. O. F. lodge of Leeds escorted the body to the church and to Graceland Park cemetery. The Masonic lodge of this place gave their ritualistic service at the grave.

A large number of old friends of the deceased from Dakota county attended the services, to pay the last tribute to their departed neighbor and pioneer associate.

of Police Harve Hawman about the case and to engage a lawyer to prepare for the defense of his son.
It is understood Hendricks has no witnesses to bear him out in his story of the alleged holdup attempt.

Sioux City Journal, 27: Joe Heenan, of Jackson, Neb., was operated upon at St. Vincent's hospital yesterday afternoon for ulcers of the stomach, and was progressing well last night. John Severson, builder of five houses on the banks of the Big Sioux river without permits from the building department, is to be prosecuted on five counts by the building inspector. Inspector Henoch yesterday laid all the circumstances in the Severson case before Councilman Ward, and with the sanction of Mayor Andrews the prosecutions were ordered. Severson has been submitting from time to time evidence the houses cost less than $500. It is the claim of the building inspector that this statement will be disproved in court.
The inspector informed Severson in the afternoon that the cases would be brought and later swore out the five warrants for arrest. It is probable that the case will come to trial in police court about Monday. The cases are being brought against Se-verson to show that the building inspector intends to enforce the building regulations and to serve as a warning to other contractors disposed to evade the regulations. Seveson has filed with the inspector statements of cost and affidavits that the houses did not cost more than $500.
He has also promised, the inspector said, to take out permits for two houses now under way and to place flue linings in chimneys of houses already built. Severson also is scheduled to appear in the police court today to defend himself on a charge of speeding. He will be served with the warrant signed by the building inspector at that time.

Severson was arrested yesterday for speeding at Eighth and Douglas streets. He was permitted to sign his own bond to appear for hearing.

Sioux City Journal, 26: Mrs. A.
N. Nixon and Mrs. George Zentmire are visiting friends at Homer, Neb.
Mrs. Mary Walsh, 79 years old, a pioneer of Dakota county, Neb., died Wednesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Hartley, of Hartington, Neb. Mrs.
Walsh removed to Dakota county from Dubuque, Ia., in the early 60s.
Her husband, John Walsh, was a veteran of the civil war. He died thirteen years ago. She suffered a paralytic stroke recently from which she never rallied. Four daughters and three sons survive her. They are: Mrs. Clem Hagan, of Sioux City; Mrs. Will Loring, of Colorado; Mrs. Theresa Hutchinson, of Sioux City; Mrs. Marley, James Walsh, of Waterbury, Neb.; John Walsh, of Vista, Neb., and Ed Walsh.
Mrs. Walsh's maiden name was Mary Loring. Dismissal of the replevin action incident to the seizure of three vanloads of beer and liquors from the store rooms of the Interstate Transportation company was announced yesterday by J. W. Kindig, assistant county attorney, following a conference held in the police chief's office between C. N. McMillan, superintendent of the Woodbury County Antisaloons league; John F. Joseph, the league's attorney; former Judge John F. Oliver and Edward E. Baron, attorneys for the transportation company, and Mr.
Kindig, Chief of Police Harve

Hawman was an interested spectator, but took no part in the conference. The result of the discussion is in the nature of a compromise, and yet from a legal standpoint is not a compromise at all, Mr. Kindig announced. One-half of the liquor seized from the rooms of the transportation company is to be returned; one-half is to be brought from its present repository at Jackson, Neb., and turned over to Chief Hawman for destruction. The replevin action started by the defendant transportation company for recovery of the liquor is to be dropped and the defendants are to pay all costs. Assistant County Attorney Kindig explained the state's position in the compromise agreement. He said about half the liquor seized was properly marked and was not subject to seizure. Some of the seized goods was taken without a warrant covering specifically the property taken, which in any case is an illegal procedure, Mr. Kindig said. The conference resulted in one decision that will cause a radical change in the police method of operation in the future. Hereafter no wagons loaded with liquors may be seized unless the officer making the seizure has in his possession a search warrant for the goods taken. "The action was taken by the state," Mr.
Kindig said, "with a full knowledge that the supreme court on final appeal would never have permitted the destruction of all the goods seized in the circumstances."

Commencing June 4, 1916

The Burlington announces through passenger service between Omaha, Lincoln, Eastern Nebraska and the North Platte Valley, Douglas, Casper and Central Wyoming via the Wendover Cut-off. The westbound service will be Train 43 to Alliance and new Train No. 31 from Alliance at 1 p. m., arriving Casper 9:50 p. m. Eastbound new Train 32 leaves Casper at 2:55 p. m., connecting at Alliance with No. 42 for Eastern Nebraska.

Through Standard Sleepers between Omaha, Lincoln and Scottsbluff, Douglas and Casper, Wyo.

The completion of the Wendover Link between the Burling-ton's Central Wyoming and North Platte Valley lines gives this System a new through and low grade route to Central Wyoming and the Big Horn Basin. The entire zone of territory traversed by this new main line is quickening with the development of Government irrigated areas, of extensive oil discoveries, new beet sugar factories, and growing industrial towns. 10,000 acres of splendid Government-irrigated land near Powell, Wyo., adjacent to this new main line will probably be opened for entry this Autumn. Bear this in mind. Those lands will be taken at once.
